To the Church Cabinet, for the period from Nov. 21st to Dec. 11th 1907.

Dear Friends:-

The brief period since the last meeting has been full of activity. The pastor has prepared and delivered six sermons; made six parish calls; conducted two funerals; baptized one infant; written twenty-one pastoral letters; and attended twenty-six meetings in his official capacity, including, besides the regular services of the church, meetings of the auxiliary societies, various committees &c.

In connection with the other protestant ministers the pastor has promoted and carried out the successful Union Service of Thanksgiving Day, which the ministers hope will continue to be a regular feature of the day's observance.

At the December meeting of the S.S. Faculty held on Dec. 4th at the home of Franklin Osborn, the pastor presented the first of a series of lectures in preparation for the work of teaching next year's Sunday School Lessons.

Considerable preparation is being made for the special service of Dec. 22nd in commemoration of Forefathers' Day; and for the Christmas service in which the choir and members of the Sunday School will participate.

At the proper place under the head of new business, some plans of work for January, and some suggestions for the approaching annual church meeting will be made.

Respectfully submitted

Will Arthur Dietrick
